

Find Him

Charlotte Tamanaha

♩ = 94

The first system of piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The right hand plays a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in a descending sequence, while the left hand provides a bass line with some chords and eighth notes. The music is in common time (C).

*Red. **

The vocal line for the first system is a single staff with a treble clef and common time signature. It contains four measures of whole rests, indicating that the vocal part is silent during this section.

The second system of piano accompaniment continues the musical texture from the first system. The right hand maintains the eighth-note pattern, and the left hand continues with its bass line. A double bar line is present at the end of the system.

The vocal line for the second system is a single staff with a treble clef and common time signature. It contains four measures of whole rests, indicating that the vocal part is silent during this section.

The third system of piano accompaniment continues the musical texture. The right hand maintains the eighth-note pattern, and the left hand continues with its bass line. A double bar line is present at the end of the system.

The vocal line for the third system is a single staff with a treble clef and common time signature. It contains four measures of music, starting with a whole rest followed by a half note, then a quarter note, and ending with a half note.
